DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statements (IDS) submitted on 8 December 2005 & 18 August 2006 are in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statements are being considered by the examiner.

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: 14'. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 4, Line 27, "initiate able" is unclear and should be revised. Appropriate correction is suggested.
4. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 5,509,357 issued to Lawther (Lawther).

Regarding claim 1, Lawther discloses a device to control material or fragment discharge from a primary or secondary liner in connection with triggering (In view of Figures 1-3D, See Abstract), by initiation of a main charge (22 Figure 1) of an ammunition unit (In view of Figure 1) wherein the liner is devised as being exposable for effect from an explosive charge or charges that are devised as being able to be initiated upon or shortly prior to the triggering of the main charge (See abstract, Col. 5, Lines 53-56) and wherein the explosive charge or charges obtain, upon initiation, a pre-deformation of the liner prior to the liner being affected by the triggering of the main charge for material or fragment discharge (In view of Figures 2A-2C, Figure 2B shows the liner 38 deformed after initiation of the detonators 34).

Regarding claim 9, Lawther discloses wherein the liner is deformed upon initiation of the explosive charge or charges in a random manner over given cross sections (Inherently deformation of an object due to a blast or detonation would be random over given cross sections based on the wave propagation).

Regarding claim 10, Lawther discloses wherein concave and convex surfaces of the liner obtain wave forms in given cross sections (Inherently the concave and convex surfaces of the liner would obtain wave forms in given cross sections, evidenced by Figure 2B).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S.

Patent 5,509,357 issued to Lawther (Lawther).

Regarding claim 11, Lawther discloses wherein the ammunition unit is a missile or a projectile ("26 - munition skin," makes reference to ammunition, which is a projectile with its fuse, propelling charges, or primers fired from guns, or alternatively, "20 - dual operating mode warhead", the definition of warhead according to Merriam Webster's Online Dictionary is the section of a missile containing the explosive, chemical, or incendiary charge, therefore, the reference implicitly discloses that the ammunition unit is a missile or a projectile).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-8 & 12-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See attached PTO-892 – Notice of References Cited form.
